Alert....

Scam traders have been targeting older and elderly residents in the Addiscombe and Ashburton area. Residents are cold called by a man claiming to be erecting scaffolding for building work to be carried out on their neighbour's property. The man asks the resident for their name and telephone number so that their boss/the builder can call them regarding the scaffolding and work. The resident then receives a telephone call from a man stating that he will be working in the neighbour's loft and needs to fit a brace to support the roof while he removes the beams which are sodden with water. The man claims that he must use expensive machinery to fit the brace and tells the resident that they must pay a deposit, for the equipment being used, he asked one resident for £2000. When challenged about what he had said, the man became agitated/aggressive and told the resident that if he did not use the brace water from the neighbour's loft would pour into their house and bring their ceilings down.

These traders may still be operating in the Addiscombe/Ashburton area, or they may now be targeting another local area.

Croydon Trading Standards warn – do not give your details to these people. If you are, or have been called on, by these traders, please contact them on 0208 407 1311 or TradingStandards@croydon.gov.uk

Intelligent Mentoring – Mentoring for boys in Croydon. Are looking to recruit mentors. There are leaflet available on the bookshelf if you think you might like to be trained in this field.
