Minster General Fund Campaign

The campaign has made a great start! Thank you very much indeed to all who have contributed so far. The final figure for May is not confirmed, but so far we have made £1555. Please keep up your donations of £10 per month / £2.50 per week extra, using the orange envelopes. Please also support the Choir Lunch and Heritage Festival – sign up lists are under the tower or speak to Gail, Rachel or Karen. Thank you.

Woodside Bereavement Service is a Christian based Bereavement Counselling Service based in the London Borough of Croydon. Established for over 20 years and used by many local GP's and schools. They are in need of more Christian Volunteer Bereavement Counsellors to join their team and offer a training course which starts in September 2014.

They also have other volunteering opportunities vacant within the service and are in need of 3 Trustee posts – Chair of Trustees, IT Support and a Fundraiser. Anyone interested in volunteering please see the poster on the notice board.
