Interregnum Update

The current interregnum is lasting for longer than we had hoped and it may yet be some months before we have news about an appointment to the role of Vicar of Croydon Minster. In the meantime, we are very grateful for some additional support that has been offered by the Revd John Ackland, recently retired as Team Rector of the Forest Hill Team in the West Lewisham Deanery. John has been with us during Holy Week and will be helping out at services from time to time and will be around to support us at the Minster during this period.

Gail and Karen, Churchwardens.
